

Spring Clothes For Good Dressers

Don't envy the man with the new Spring suit—come to us—make your selection—get your comfort from perfectly tailored, new stylish garments from the world's best manufacturers—

Hart, Schaffner & Marx and College Brand Clothes.

They are fashioned with character and knacks of style that mean distinctiveness. Shapely shoulders, tailored to hold their shape and keep the graceful coat lines. Collars that set snug about the neck. It simply cannot sag or pull away—another instance of good tailoring. Coat fronts that don't wrinkle, sag or break, because the hidden parts are carefully hand shaped to follow the rounded lines of the body.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We wish to announce to our many friends that the Economical Steam Laundry Company at their last business meeting on Friday, March 15th, reorganized and elected the following officers: Dr. J. B. Singleton, President; Prof. Geo. E. Washington, Secretary; Mr. H. T. Green, Treasurer; Mr. J. W. Bostick, General Manager.

This action was necessary by the resignation of Mr. Arthur G. Price, former manager. Dr. Singleton purchased the stock owned by Mr. Price. Our aim is to please the people, and we realize that this can only be done by giving first-class service. To do this, we will equip our plant in the near future with up-to-date machinery.

We thank you for past favors and earnestly solicit your patronage in the future.

Respectfully yours,

ECONOMICAL STEAM LAUNDRY COMPANY,
J. W. BOSTICK, Manager.

ATTACHMENT NOTICE.

Before D. U. Burke, Justice of the Peace in and for Davidson County, Tenn., Bessie Nunion Armstrong by etc., vs. E. F. Badoux.
In this cause it appearing by affidavit that defendant E. F. Badoux is indebted to Plaintiff, Bessie Nunion Armstrong by etc., in the sum of five hundred dollars due by damages, and that E. F. Badoux is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee and due process of law cannot be served upon him and an original attachment has been issued and levied on the following real estate, to wit: Being Lot No. 59, at No. 409 Gay street. Said lot No. 59 fronts 42 feet on Gay street and runs back between parallel lines seventy-two feet (72 ft.), being the property of E. F. Badoux. It is, therefore, ordered that publication be made in the Nashville Globe, a newspaper published in Davidson County, Tenn., for four consecutive weeks, commanding the said defendant to appear before me or some other Justice of the Peace of said county at my office No. 329 Deaderick street, Nashville, Tenn., on the 27th day of April, 1907, at 1 p. m., and make defense in said suit, or it will be proceeded with ex parte.

D. U. BURKE,
Justice of Peace for Davidson County, Tenn.

NEGRO MASONS OF TENNESSEE.

The Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Free, Ancient and Accepted Masons of the State of Tennessee has recently purchased a beautiful property containing about three miles from the city on the Lebanon pike, for the Widows and Orphans Home. Their purpose is to establish on this property a Widows and Orphans Home for the colored Masons. In connection with the home will be conducted schools, both literary and industrial.

On Palm Sunday the ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold services throughout the State and at the services special collections will be raised for the benefit of this home; it is expected that this female department will raise at least $2,000.

On Easter Sunday the Knights Templars in connection will make special effort to raise a large sum also for this home. It is expected that the Templars throughout the State will raise $4,000. While this is a masonic home, it will be a benefit not only to the race, but to the city, State and to the public generally. We, therefore, call upon friends and the people to turn out with us on Palm Sunday at St. Paul A. M. E. Church at 2:00 o'clock p. m., and on Easter Sunday at Lea Avenue Christian Church, at 2 o'clock p. m., and assist in this laudable and Christian enterprise. Pure and undefiled religion before God is to help the widows in their affliction and train up the homeless and friendless orphans in the admonition of the Lord.

PRESTON TAYLOR, Pres.
J. A. O. BROUGHTON, Sec'y.

A SWELL AFFAIR.

The young men of the "Six Four Hundred Club," gave an enjoyable entertainment recently at the residence of the Misses Hargrave, 1106 Twelfth avenue, South, which was conceded to be one of the best of the season. The young men were attired in full dress, and the young ladies wore pretty evening dresses. The color scheme was red and white. Games and dancing were indulged in until a very late hour, after which a menu of several courses was served. Those present were Misses Estella Campbell, Mary Cheers, Celia Hendley, Sallie Duvall, Hattie Mullien, Robbie Overton, Mattie L. Overton, Sarah Garner, Matilda Hargrave, Maggie Hargrave, Messrs. A. W. Thompson, Milton Darden, James Watson, Jeff Winston, Wymon Brady, Geo. Hicks, Levi Bradley, Robert Martin, Eugene Morton, Horace Harrison, Earl Sargent, Aaron Bradford, Odum Harris, Wm. Hargrave.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Shelbyville has been made quite lively recently by a revival of interest in Pythianism.

Dr. R. F. Boyd and Sir Knight N. N. Reynolds were in town last week and paid the heirs of a deceased Calanthean $100. A large public meeting was held in the Assembly Hall of the Turner Normal Institute. Dr. J. A. Jones acted as master of ceremonies. The visit of these two gentlemen has resulted in the organization of a strong Court of Calanthe and a Juvenile, besides the addition of a number of new men to the lodge. The Court consists of many of the leading women of the town. Great preparations are being made to observe the Pythians Thanksgiving day. Dr. J. A. Jones will preach the sermon.

The winter term of Turner Normal Institute closes this week. The faculty and students are busy preparing a very imposing and elaborate program to be rendered Friday night, the 22nd. The school is enjoying a season of great prosperity this year.

Palm Sunday will be observed by the Masons and the Eastern Star. Services will be held at the A. M. E. Church.

The Immaculates are getting busy about the celebration of Easter. They are quite numerous here.

Rev. H. H. Hinton, pastor of the M. E. Church, is visiting in Kentucky. Rumor has it that he may emigrate to that state.

PRINCE HERRMAN.

The people of Nashville are invited to laugh with Prince Herrman and Duke Berryman during the incoming week at the following named places:
